Best Element in Racing Prominent in Visiting Crowd-Steeplechase Provides a Great Race - Amateur Ride r.J. O'Brien Injured-Belmont Sees Fair Play Win

SABATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 5 .- With all the glories of a race meeting at this place the Saratoga Association to-day opened its gates for a session of twenty-two days which promlees to bring sport of a calibre that comes to the acme of racing. For week back the prominent figures of the turf world have been gathering here, and yester day morning came the thousands who had remained over for the close at Brighton. In hest bib and tucker they have filled the hotels. boarding houses and the cottages, with the overflow at Ballston and the neighboring towns within trolley riding distance.

It had been feared by some that the promise of racing at Empire City would keep the invading forces down. If there are any missing it is the hustlers' division, who have never been welcome here; in fact if they will stay away the real friends of racing will rejoice.

Perfect weather helped to make the open-ing of the meeting delightful. Last night light overcoats and wraps were demanded and this afternoon while the sun shone brightly the breezes carried a crispness that all relished.

A tour of borse haven this morning showed no empty stalls and in the stables over on th main course it is the same story. In this great collection of thoroughbreds is practically every horse of merit in the country here to race. They entered in the fixtures which closed months ago, and in addition will be found competing in the overnight races. Never in the history of racing here has there been greater promise of high class sport.

To get down to close figures as to the attendance Seymour Beutler, who is in charg of the Pinkerton forces, said that while th crowd was not as great as on the opening da last year, which was a record breaker, it exceeded in every way expectations in facwas one of the largest in the history of the place. This was exceedingly gratifying to those in charge, and the general comment as to the absence of the undesirable elemen further added to the pleasure of those at the put it, "there seems to be a general desir to rally to the support of the Jockey Club it its present position. The very best friends of racing are here, and later on you will find

From East and West there seems to be desire to rally here and make the meetin an unbounded success. The number of layers at work was 214, 144 of which held fort in the grand stand enclosure and the remain ing 70 looked after the wants of the field stand patrons. When balance sheets for the day were struck all reported plenty of busi ness and a fair share of profits, which is no surprising, as but one favorite scored of the

The day's card included three fixtures : Th Saratoga Steeplechase, to which the association added $5,000; the time honored Flash Stakes, which had a guaranteed value of $6,000, and the Saratoga Handicap, with which went $10,000, to be divided between the placed three. In the latter two the fields were just a little disappointing both as to numbers and quality, but the steeplechase brought a contest of the very highest order, one of the best races of the year in the opinion of the cross-country experts. The winner was J. E. Widener's El Cuchillo, and his margin at the end was a short head, with J. W. Colt's Thistledale the runner up. Reviewed carefully, the latter was the better horse and his defeat can be attributed to the fact that Huppe, who had the mount, was unable to do him full justice, while Donohue, on El Cuchillo, rode a perfect race.

Huppe's blunder came at the last jump but one, to which point he had made practically all the running. After clearing this jump in good style Huppe took hold of his horse to steady him. As he did the riders of El Cuchillo and St. Volma set to work and before fifty yards had been covered they were a couple of lengths in front of him. Huppe at once realized he had been outjockeyed and sat down to make up the lost ground. His horse was willing and he soon caught and passed St. Volma, but El Cuchillo managed to last it out, just beating him home. tle question that he sent to the post the best for

Old Grandpa was the only one of the nine that started that did not get over the course. and he gave his rider, Mr. J. O'Brien, an ugly fall at the jump in front of the clubhouse. Mr. O'Brien was thought to be badly hurt at first and was promptly removed to one of the city hospitals, but to-night's reports are favorable: that is, no bones were broken, his injuries consisting of some severe bruises and a general shaking up, but the doctors say they would prefer to wait until to-morrow before making a full statement as to his

August Belmont, with his sons, came up for the opening and to see his colors carried by Fair Play in the Flash Stakes. The day's results must have been pleasing in every way to the chairman of the Jockey Club, for the attendance was satisfactory in every way and Fair Play captured first honors in decisive style. This son of Hastings showed in his races at Brighton that he was improving steadily, and after to-day's showing he can safely be rated as of stake class and well up on the list. He is a Nursery bred one, being by Hastings-Fairy Gold.

Harry Payne Whitney introduced a new one in the Flash in Royal Tourist, a good looking son of Sandringham-Leisure. colt was green and did not do himself full fustice, still was one of the contenders and, all considered, ran a very creditable race. Double honors came in the way of the Mewcastle Stable in the Saratoga Handicap, McCarter winning by a head from Running Water. Tom Welsh, trainer of the pair, was in high glee over the result. As the pair passed the finish so nearly aligned that the official placing was eagerly awaited be turned to the crowd standing near him and said, "If it is a dead heat I won't run it off."

The Sanford colors made their first appearance of the year in the closing event They were carried by Onatassa, a colt by Jaidor- Rockwater, who will be the stable's candidate in the Saratoga Special on Saturday. Gen. Sanford, who is here for the meeting, is inclined to think this is the best of his two-year-olds, and it may be he will prove a worthy one. He looked big to-day, still ran a flattering race.

Incidentally the Saratoga Special looks now more likely to bring to the post a big field than it did a week ago, for at that time It looked as if Colin held the rich prize at his mercy, but since his arrival here the son of Commando has been coughing slightly, and while his trainer, James Rowe, does not think the trouble will amount to anything, the Indisposition will encourage others to run against him. Chapultepec, another of the feared ones. has also been coughing since his arrival here, but it looks a certainty that he will get to the post. The probable starters in Special up to date are James R. Keene's Colin. Fred Burlew's Chapultepec, Brown leigh Park Stable's King Sol, J. E. Madden's Uncle, Oneck Stable's Cohort, John Sanford's Onatassa, Harry Payne Whitney's Bar None, Fred Johnson's Lady Winifred. If this lot the best of the meeting.

Tom Meerath ran his six furlongs in 1.12. which equals the track record for the dis-tance. As he was running well in hand all through the homestretch there is no oneshung out had there been any one to make a

The Westerners won handsomely when Tour Dolan captured the rifth race. This coll was point capturer at New Orleans and has been meeting, which opens on Saturday, will be kept going pretty steadily since. He seems in charge of tharles M. McManus, a former to be better than ever, for he came pretty close to making an exhibition of his field. As he was led off after the race his trainer, it l'adhies, said his all the same to him is a winter track at New Orleans or Sara-

W. J. Young of Lexington, Ky., who after a very successful campaign in the West has come here with a very useful lot, will race through the meeting, then ship back to the farm for a long restup. He reports his year-lings as of unusual promise and if they go on as well as he expects he will ship his entire string to California for the winter racing.

The steeplechase course here has been greatly improved since last season. The ourse is marked by a beautiful hedge of cedar bushes and the last jump is a new one. It is an extension of the jump in front of the field stand and brings the horses into the flat for the run home without any of the sharp turns with corners of fences to bring crowding and accidents that are so frequent at the other tracks. The jumps have all been stiffened, and in the opinion of experts the course now compares with the world famous course at Aintree, where England's Grand National is Aintree, where England's Grand National is run. The Liverpool at which Mr. O'Brien fell is 5 feet 2 inches in height. This is beyond all question the stiffest course in this country. George Dennison, a Western rider of fair skill, was thrown while galloping a horse this morning and badly shaken up. He will be in the hospital for several days.

CROKER'S ORBY BREAKS DOWN.

Derby Winner Not Regarded Now as a Likely St. Leger Candidate.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, Aug. 5. Since Richard Croker's Derby winner. Orby, collapsed in the race for the Atlantic Stakes at Liverpool on July 26, when he came in last in a field of four horses, rumor has been busy with the colt's It is said that the stable had not the failure. It is said that the stable had not the slightest suspicion that anything was wrong with him before the race, but that now they are satisfied there was.

It is authoritatively said that since his return to Glencairn the colt has shown signs of an affection of the kidneys, such as he suffered from last year. This seems to kill his chances for the St. Leger, which will be run on September 11. But all depends on whether he can be rested, treated and cured in that time.

He is willing to race a team of six Napiers against any other team, the only condition being the cylinder capacity. The cars of the acceptors of the challenge must be the same as the Napiers in that respect. Edge proposes three races, at the distances of 300, 300 and 100 miles, to be decided at the Brooklands track some time this month.

BEATS RUNNING WATER A HEAD IN SARATOGA HANDICAP.

Dandelton, Favorite, Is Third—Belmont's Fair Play Takes the Flash - El Cuchillo Wins Steeplechase - Tom McGrath. Tom Dolan and Almee C. Also Succeed.

SARATOGA, Aug. 5.-The annual meeting of the Saratoga Racing Association opened here to-day in a blaze of glory. The weather was perfect and a crowd of probably 12,000 persons turned out to see some high class sport. The rich Saratoga Handicap, at a mile and a quarter, was the most interesting feature of the programme, in spite of the fact that there were only six starters. F. R. Hitchcock's Dandelion, who was beaten a nose by Ballot in the Invincible Handicap at Brighton Beach last week, was the favorite, played from 7 to 5 down to 11 to 10, while the Newcastle Stable's entry, the three-year-old McCarter, who ran Peter Pan to a head in the Brighton Handicap, and the Sir Dixon mare Running Water were coupled at 9 to 5, having opened a point lower. H. P. Whitney's Ironsides was also played a trifle, but the others were passed up.

When the barrier went up Radtke took Dandelion to the front to make the page.

Dandelion to the front to make the pace. McCarter, Running Water and Gallavant went after him in a bunch, Dandelion never having more than a length the best of it. Nearing the mile mark Radtke let Dandelion down, but the Hamburg colt did not respond with the expected burst of speed, so that he began to drop back Then Running Water under a hard ride from Notter went to the front, but Miller also got busy with McCarter, who, under a flerce drive, won the race by a head from the Sir Dixon mare, with Dandelion four lengths away. The time was 2:05 3-5.

There was another setback for the form There was another setback for the form players in the $6,000 Flash Stakes, for two-year-olds, five and a half furiongs. The big operators and the crowd in general plunged on H. P. Whitney's entry, Royal Tourist and Adriana, backing them down from 8 to 5 to 8 to 5. But both of them were easily outrun and got no part of the money. Frank J. Farrell's coit Jim Gaffney, a 12 to 1 shot, set a corking good pace right up to the last sixteentin pole, where he hung, and August Belmont's Fair Play, who receded from 3 to 5 to 1, closed with a rush and beat him in a drive by a length and a half in 106 3-5. Sir Cleges, 15 to 1, an added starter, ran a good race and, four lengths back, took third place by a head from F. R. Hitchcock's Smoker, 16 to 5 second choice.

The finish in the Saratoga Steeplechase, at about two miles, was a thriller. It was a two horse affair all the way. In a fleroe drive J. E. Widener's El Cuchillo, 3 to 1 second choice, lasted long enough to win by a head from J. W. Colt's Thistledale, 5 to 2 favorite, with J. C. Ferris's St. Volma, a 10 to 1 shot, third, fifteen lengths away. Grandpa, backed down to 5, took a tumble. The time was 4:16.

H. R. Brandt's Tom McGrath, 11 to 5 second choice, held the others safe at all stages in the first race, for platers, at six furlongs, and won easily by two lengths from Boots Durnell's Jacobite, 8 to 5 favorite. The latter had a length over C. F. Clark's Green Seal, a 40 to 1 shot. J. E. Seagram's Deuce, 15 to 1, was closing fast at the end after a slow beginning. The time was 1:2.

Fred Cook's Tom Dolan, backed down to 6 to 5 favorite, after making all the running, won the fifth race, for platers, at a mile, in a big gallop by four lengths in 1:39 4-5. Workmaid, 5 to 1, came from the ruck in time to get the place from Arimo, 8 to 5, by half a length. Euripides, who showed speed for six furlongs, was half a length back.

Frank J. Farrell and his friends cleaned up with Aimee C., well backed at 8 to 1, as the Watercolor filly had all kinds of speed and won the last players in the $6,000 Flash Stakes, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs. The big American Players Make Good Showing in Canadian Tournament.

LAMBTON, Ontario, Aug. 5.—The golfing tournament at the Lambton Golf and Country Club produced some highly interesting play to-day. The American competitors are doing splendidly and it begins to look as though one of them would surely carry off premier honors in the tournament. Their play is being closely followed by the local men, as well as by the visiting players from other Canadian cities. The play for the day consisted of the two rounds in each of the first, second, third and fourth flights.

The consolation handicap was held in the

Lyon had a hard game with the Mississauga Golf Club representative, J. H. Forester. Forester was 2 up at the end of six holes of play and Lvon was obliged to take the next three holes in 3, 3, 3, in order to square the match at the ninth. Lyon had a fairly easy time

Tyson of Philadelphia after a splendid game by 2 up. B. W. Corkran of Philadelphia won from A. W. S. West of Philadelphia won from M. E. Conklyn of Dunwoodie, N. Y., by 1 up. The New Yorks put away two Chicago pitchers in short order yesterday afternoon, and though they did not score on the third, the renowned master of the moist curve. Mr. Walsh, they peppered him briskly. They won the game by their heavy hitting in the first three innings, pummelling Patterson to uselessness in the first inning and sending White away on a figurative streecher in the third. The White Sox bunched three rousing hits on Hogg in the fourth inning, but could not score at any other time. Hogg pitching in excellent form in eight rounds of the nine. In fact, so far as runs were concerned, there was a marked contrast between the first three innings and the others. Twelve runs were assembled in the first three and naught but chaplets of zeros after that.

It was a violent, virile game all the way, however. The fielders on both sides stood up to some tearing hitting in fine style, blocking liners that sundered space with terrific velocity and playing a stiff fielding game generally in the face of the ralapian the batters beat upon the ball. Griffith had to rearrange his team. Keeler was back, which allowed the assigning of Laporte to first base. Laporte is far from being the spry individual that Chase is on first, but except once he did all right on the balls thrown to him, and the runner was right on him two or three times.

The New Yorks wriggled out of difficulties in the first inning with a double play, Conroy impaling Jones's liner and doubling Hahn at first base. The New Yorks wasted no time sparring for wind. Hoffman banged a two bagger to left, his fast running taking him to second alread of Dougherty's throw in Keeler softly laid a bunt on the foul line and beat it to first. Moriarity skied to left, the ball falling safe but forcing Keeler, Jones to Isbell. Sullivan's whip was not in good throwing condition—he left the game subsequently—and Mory stole second. Laporte singled to centre and Williams spilled a three NEW YORK (A. L.), 8; CHICAGO (A. L.), 4.

bagger against the score board. Three runs came in.

There was more stalwart hitting in the second. Rickey drove a three bagger past Hahn, Kleinow walked, Hogg struck out and Hoffman, with two strikes against him, took the Sox infield off its guard with a quick poke between Isbell and Donohue. Hoffman stole second, Keeler was safe on Rohe's error and Moriarity lined a single to centre. Laporte flied to Donohue, and then Moriarity and Keeler tried a double steal. That was their fell purpose, but White's bluff throw to second lured Keeler off the third bag, and he was snared. The inning was good for three more runs.

lured Keeler off the third bag, and he was snared. The inning was good for three more runs.

The third onslaught was steeped in slugging. For Chicago Isbell hit to right, McFarland walked, and White sent a clanging single past Moriarity. Hahn hit to Conroy, whose throw to third forced McFarland, Isbell having tallied on White's hit. Jones flied to Conroy. Donohue scoured the bases with a shricking wallop that crashed through the middle of the diamond, hopped past Hoffman in centre a mile a minute and mowed a trail in the grass to the furthermost corner of the sylvan surroundings.

In New York's half of the turbulent third Conroy tapped a fly to the right foul line for three bases and scored on Rickey's hit. Kleinow singled, and with Hogg the next batter and Walsh just coming into the box it looked as if one run might be all. Hogg upset calculations by pounding a single to centre and scoring Rickey. Right here was some poor base running. Kleinow tried to take third on Hogg's hit and was thrown out by Dougherty, and Hogg failed to move on to second on the throw in. Hoffman laced a liner to Walsh that was too heated to hold,

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Batting against a heavy first inning haudicap New York to-day cut down a lead to even terms, tied up the score in the eighth and won out in the ninth, after a rare display of nerve and determination. Bowerman and Bresnahan were preeminent in the assault on Taylor of the curves and to them goes most of the credit for the victory. Ames, after the first inning, pitched an excellent game and was well supported. New York had the bases full in the first round, but could not score. Ames was unsteady, passing Slagle and Sheckard. Schulte was hit on the back and Howard sent one to Dahlen, whose throw home seemed to get Slagle. Klein called him safe and the chewing match that followed was terriffe. Peace was only restored when McGraw, Mathewson and Shay were ordered off the field, McGraw hurling a volley of invective as he left. The score:
